

Marla Jane Nalisnick Bird

December 10, 1952 - January 26, 2026

Marla Jane Nalisnick Bird, beloved daughter, sister, mother, aunt, and friend, passed away unexpectedly on January 26, 2026 at UVA Health Prince William at the age of 73.

Born in Bakerton, Pennsylvania, on December 10, 1952 to George and Coletta Nalisnick, Marla was known for being kind, generous, and fiercely loving to those she cared about. Marla had a deep love and compassion for family, friends, and neighbors, and greatly enjoyed gardening, cooking, baking, and hosting events for those she loved at her beautiful home in Nokesville. She was an avid football fan and loved cheering for her favorite teams, especially the Penn State Nittany Lions. She loved animals—dogs and cats alike. Marla's presence brought light, love, and laughter to those fortunate enough to spend time with her.

Marla was preceded in death by her loving parents George and Coletta Nalisnick, and her youngest son, Drew Brenner. Marla is survived by her adoring husband, J. David Bird, of Nokesville, VA and son, Brett Brenner (Ryenne) of Carmel, IN, and granddaughters Avery and Harper Brenner; sisters Natalie Miller (Mac) of Woodbridge, VA and Jean Price (John) of South Riding, VA and brother Robert Nalisnick (Gloria) of Hollidaysburg, PA. Also survived by her nephew and godson, Marc Miller (Adriane) and great nephews Bryce and Chase of Woodbridge, VA and niece, Catherine Del Gallo and great nieces Peyton (Jonathan), Delaney, and Keelyn, of Manassas, VA.

Marla also leaves behind a loving blended family to include a stepson, Nick Pietrandrea (Christa) of Lake Ridge, VA and step grandsons, TJ (Jenna) and children, and Josh, Luke and Kaitlyn. All will forever cherish her memory; Marla's love, spirit, and infectious smile will remain with us always.

Marla moved to Northern Virginia in 1971; she worked diligently in the Human Resources Career Field, and retired after 36 years of dedicated and loyal service initially to the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) in Washington, DC, with the majority of her time spent working at the Department of the Army at Fort Belvoir, VA where she retired in 2011.
