

Mary P. Kiely

February 28, 2024

On February 28th, 2024, surrounded by her loving family, Mary P. Kiely passed peacefully to sleep. Mary was born on April 6, 1940, in New York City, New York to Thomas and Bridget Clarkin of County Cavan Ireland. Mary grew up with her siblings, Ann B. Clarkin (deceased), Kay Burke and her brother Peter Clarkin in New York City.

Mary met her beloved husband Thomas F. Kiely, while working in New York City, New York at Union Labor Life Insurance Company. Mary and Tom married on May 8, 1965, in New York. Mary and Tom had three children, Patricia A. Kiely, Thomas Kiely (Kim Kiely), and Michael A. Kiely (Christy Kiely). Mary was blessed with loving grandsons, Jordyn Patrick Kiely, Connor Kiely, Ryan Kiely, Quinn Adams, and Devon Adams.

Through the years Mary explored various jobs, she really excelled as an Eye Technician, and always found time to volunteer her time to help others. Either through church or local organizations, Mary always tried to help where she could. Her sweet smile and gentle demeanor invited kindness from friends and strangers alike. Mary also loved reading, especially Danielle Steel novels, and delighted in watching Blue Bloods. Her children fondly remember summer days at the Jersey Shore, particularly Avon-by-the-Sea, where mom would take us whether rain or shine. Her daughter Patricia's love for the shore came from these wonderful times with her mom. Mary also ventured into teaching her kids crabbing in Keyport, New Jersey, which usually ended with pizza and ice cream versus the intended meal.

Mary and her beloved husband Tom enjoyed spending time watching their grandsons grow and spending time with each other.

Mary's family has asked for donations in her name at mealsonwheelsamerica.org.
