“ So sad to hear of her passing. A shock. I just found out from my brother, Daniel. We spent so much time together as children in the sixties. Big hugs to Annick. Claude and June LeSaux.

“ Maryann, I remember when you first moved into the neighborhood and you invited us to your home for a get together on your deck. I knew you were special then because even though we were neighbors, you treated us like family. My son Joshua went to school with your daughter and your family has always been such great addition to Purdham Drive. Your smile and seeing you walk your doggie will be missed. Rest in peace!!!!

“ I have only known Maryann for the 2 1/2 years I have been at Interstate but her kindness and obvious friendships and can do attitude were always contagious around the building. She leaves behind a loving family at too early an age. You will be missed Maryann but you will not be forgotten. Dave Roe
