

Morgan Donahue Phillips III

March 25, 1996 - April 6, 2025

Morgan Donahue Phillips III, known by many as M.D., was born on March 25, 1996, in Leesburg, Virginia, and passed away peacefully at his home in Occoquan, Virginia, surrounded by his loving family. He fought valiantly against stage IV colon cancer, demonstrating a strength and resilience that inspired everyone around him.

Raised in Woodbridge, Virginia, Morgan graduated from Woodbridge High School, and was known throughout the community for his athleticism and passion for sports. He started playing basketball at a young age and dedicated several years to both AAU and his high school team. He played football, showcasing his competitive spirit and love for the game. As a dedicated sports fan, he spent time watching soccer, basketball and cherished his favorite team, the Washington Commanders.

Professionally, Morgan worked for Dodson Pest Control, where he applied his strong work ethic and commitment to excellence. Beyond his career, he had an innate passion for fashion, often expressing his creativity through his clothing designs, notably under the brand HUE.

Morgan is preceded in death by his grandfather, Floyd B. Trammel Sr., and his aunt, Marie Trammel Avery. He is survived by his beloved wife, Nataya, his parents, Jasmine Phillips and Morgan Phillips Jr. (Asia); his siblings, Caitlin Phillips, Carter Phillips, and Josiah Phillips; his grandparents, Patricia Trammel, Joyce Phillips, and Morgan Donahue Phillips Sr. (Theresa); as well as his uncles, Floyd Trammel Jr., Antionne Phillips, Terrell Phillips, and aunt Yolanda Phillips Greer. He is remembered by a host of cousins and friends who cherished him dearly.

Morgan married his life partner Nataya, on September 27, 2024. Their love story was a beautiful journey, filled with passion, laughter, support, and an unwavering bond that brought light to their lives. Although they will not grow old together, the depth of their connection and the memories they created will forever resonate in the hearts of those who knew them.

Morgan had a profound love for nature, finding peace and joy in activities like fishing and paddle boarding. He was a beacon of light in the lives of those around him, leaving behind unforgettable memories and a legacy of love & kindness. Morgan's spirit will forever remain in the hearts of all who were fortunate enough to know him, reminding us to cherish each moment and to love deeply.
