

Nancy Ann Birdsall

September 1, 2024

Nancy Ann Birdsall, a beloved art educator passed away on September 1, 2024, in Woodbridge, Virginia. Born on April 11, 1948, in Huntington, Virginia, Nancy's life was a testament to her passion for art and her dedication to inspiring others.

Nancy graduated from Old Dominion University and embarked on a rewarding career as an art teacher, impacting the lives of countless students over 31 years. Her love for the arts extended beyond the classroom; she was an accomplished artist herself, creating sculptures, paintings, and driftwood art. Her creativity and talent brought beauty into the world and touched the hearts of those who experienced her work.

Nancy was preceded in death by her father John H. Schrotel and mother Virginia E. Schrotel. She is survived by her devoted husband, Jon R. Birdsall, daughter, Sarah A. McGrew, son-in-law Alexander I. McGrew, brother John H. Schrotel II, Sister-in-law, Valerie Schrotel, six nieces and nephews and nine great-nieces and great-nephews. Her legacy lives on through the many lives she touched and the art she created.

A memorial service celebrating Nancy's life and artistic contributions will be held on September 21st, 2024 from 3:30 – 5:30pm at the Pat White Center at Ben Lomond. The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations be made to the Parkinson Foundation in her honor.

Nancy's kindness, creativity, and spirit will be deeply missed by all who knew her. May her memory be a source of comfort and inspiration to those who continue to cherish her legacy.

“ My goodness.....I just saw that Nancy left us. She was a fun loving neighbor who always had a kind heart. Jon and Sarah, Joe and I send our condolences to the entire family. She was very special and made Hedges Run a wonderful place to live.

I'm so glad that I stopped to visit in February of 2020 when I was passing through Lake Ridge. That was a week prior to the pandemic....hard to believe. Jon, thank you for making that happen too.

Hugs to all.
