

Nancy Tittel Coleman

October 31, 2025

Nancy Tittel Coleman, 81, of Woodbridge, Virginia, passed away peacefully on October 31, 2025. Born on May 8, 1944, in Cincinnati, Ohio, Nancy was raised in Louisville, Kentucky, where she developed a lifelong love for learning, teaching, and caring for others.

A proud graduate of Bellarmine University, Nancy embarked on a life that beautifully blended dedication, adventure, and service. As a military spouse, she traveled the world alongside her husband, embracing each new community with warmth and grace. In 1977, Nancy and her family settled in Lake Ridge, Virginia, where she found her true calling in education.

For approximately 20 years, Nancy taught at St. Thomas Aquinas Regional School, guiding and inspiring generations of students. After her retirement, her commitment to education continued as a substitute teacher at St. John Paul the Great High School. Many of her former students remained in touch, a testament to the deep and lasting impact she had on countless young lives.

Those who knew Nancy will remember her as a gentle, loving, and caring soul who gave of herself freely and brought light to the lives of those around her. Whether in the classroom, at home, or among friends, she embodied patience, kindness, and quiet strength.

Nancy is survived by her husband of 58 years Retired Colonel Robert "Bob" Coleman of Lake Ridge, VA , Daughter Tricia Raulerson (David) of Asheville, NC, Son The Honorable Robert P. Coleman (Joan), of Manassas, VA , Sister Patricia Zack of Louisville, KY, Brother Bill Tittel (Carol) of Goshen, KY, Grandchildren Lance, Daniel, Emma, and Alex Coleman, Andrew and Harrison Best.
