

Nazare Johary Guerrero-Reyes

September 22, 2024

Prince William County and Virginia Beach areas mourn the loss of a bright young soul, Nazare Johary Guerrero-Reyes, who passed away on September 22nd, 2024. Born on January 22nd, 2004, to Diana Nofal, she was a true native of Woodbridge, a place she called home.

Nazare's journey, though brief, and at the young age of 20 years of age showed a deep love of life and family. An active member of the US Navy, her love for her job and commitment to her country is what kept her motivated to want to do better and be a better person. She was a ray of sunshine. Her inner beauty shined so bright that she relayed her love for the world onto everyone around her.

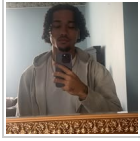

Nazare was a beacon of light; a light that waded the path to her own successful future. Her determination and ambitious spirit is what made people fall in love with her. Her hobbies were a reflection of her vibrant personality. She had a passion for sports and animals, which could be seen through the years of Judo training and love for her cats. Known for her kind heart, goofiness and infectious smile, her memory will forever be remembered by those who love her.

Nazare is survived by her loving parents, Diana Nofal and Malek Nofal, brothers Amir Nofal and Adam Nofal, and sister Hannah Nofal, who will miss her dearly. She also leaves behind her maternal grandmother Norma Reyes and maternal grandfather Daniel Reyes, paternal grandmother Hanan Nofal and paternal grandfather Ahmad Nofal, as well as a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends that loved her dearly.

A service and ceremony to honor Nazare and her life will be held by the family.

Tribute Wall

“ 3 files added to the tribute wall

Ty Pierce - December 28, 2024 at 12:12 PM

“ 💔

Ty Pierce - December 28, 2024 at 11:51 AM

“ Yenicca H. planted a Memorial Tree in honor of Nazare Johary Guerrero-Reyes.

Yenicca H. - November 25, 2024 at 06:20 AM

YH

“❤️

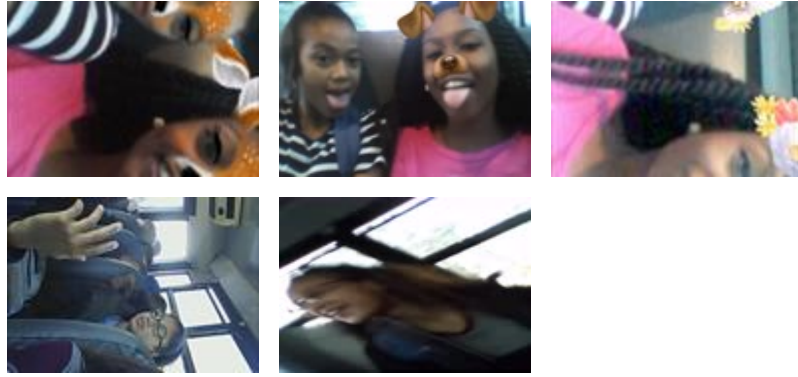

Ye' Nicca Holmes - November 25, 2024 at 06:05 AM

YH

“ I remember when Nazare first moved to woodbridge. She moved down the street from me in a house close to our elementary school. From the first time i met her we had clicked and immediately became friends. We shared a lot of time on the bus going to school getting to know each other. Nazare always had a smile on my face. She was so funny. She also was very thoughtful. She always hyped me up and made me feel good about myself. She was there for me during tough times and I'll never forget her. Nazare was full of life and taken way too soon. She is one of the most beautiful people i've ever met, inside and out. I can still hear her laugh replay in my head. And remember how contagious it was. We all didn't know how soon the day would come when you were called home. Although you left us all way to soon I'd like to say I believe that you served your purpose on this earth and i'm so incredibly honored to have known you and it leaves me heartbroken that you'll never experience marriage or kids or getting out the Navy. And that your brothers, sister, and parents and everyone else is left to grieve you. I really dont know where i'm going with this but this is just heavy on my heart. I pray that you watch over us and send signs that you made it to heaven and are always with us. It's hard to wrap my head around the fact that just 2 months ago you were living life with no idea that would soon come to an end. Writing this is so surreal. Going to your grave doesn't feel real. Seeing you in the casket did not seem real and i can't get the image out my head. Watching them close your casket really feel like watching a chapter of my life close. It put things into perspective and reminded me not to take my life for granted. If i could trade place with you i would. You had so much left to do!!! You were only 20 about to be 21! We will never know or understand why you were taken from us but now i live my life in honor of you. I pray for the healing of your family through this journey of learning how to live without you. This holiday season is gonna be tough but I pray it gets easier as time goes on.

Nazare Johary Guerrero-Reyes I love you so much!! I'll miss you. You were an amazing person and you will always hold a special place in my heart. I will absolutely never forget you ❤️

---

Ye' Nicca Holmes - November 25, 2024 at 06:02 AM

“ I miss you Nazare. It's been over a month since you've been gone and it still doesn't seem real, it probably never will. I know you're somewhere shining your everlasting light still. You were a little sister to me, and my little sister's best friend, you were above all, family. We'll always love and miss you, and I'll always remember your beautiful smile and laughter. You'll forever be in our hearts. I'm so thankful my little sister got to meet you, become the best of friends with you, and in turn bring you into our lives, and us into your life. I'm so glad we got to talk and have conversations about our lives. The one thing that sticks out to me most, from these conversations, is how you were so, so excited for your future, from all the hard work you were doing in the here and now, before you left us. It was inspiring Nazare, and it made me really really proud of you. I'll always be proud of you the way I'm so proud my little sister Cathy. I love you and I'll always love you like the little sister you are to me. You always asked about what's going on with me whenever we saw each other, and told me how proud of me you are too. These memories are forever cherished in my mind and heart. Thank you Nazare for everything, for being an angel on earth, and now in heaven. You are forever loved.

I posted pictures of when we went together to the Illusions Museum, me, you, Cathy and my boyfriend. I'm really glad we got to take you and Cathy there, and have these memories forever.

With eternal love,

Wendy, your older sis from another mother <3333

Wendy Lovelush - November 09, 2024 at 08:25 PM