“ Charlie & Family

*It is hard to describe how we feel at the loss of our dear, long-time friend, Pat. She has been a part of our life for the past fifty years and she leaves a void that will never be filled. We three are so thankful for her friendship, her kindness, her caring, her laughter and we have many, many memories of times shared. This past July, all four of us were together for our 50th reunion. And, what a time it was! Everyday brought something special, almost magical. We remarked from time to time that we were so very blessed to have these daily happenings and that it was a sign that we were meant to be together in that place, at that time. If Pat left anything with us, it was a sense of love and caring for each other. As we go on without her, we look forward to other reunions where we will lift a glass in toast to her memory. Reunions won't be the same, but she will be there with us in spirit. Sending love and prayers to you all.

“ I worked with Pat for 15 years. She was such a caring person, always concerned about others. She loved her family so much and was always sharing pictures and videos of her grand babies. She sure loved being “nana”! She will be missed by many💔.

“ With deepest sympathy to the Cate’s Family. Pat was a very wonderful person whom we had the pleasure of knowing over the past ten years. Our paths crossed at the Gym, where Pat often spent time participating in various forms of Physical Conditioning. She was our friend. May she rest in eternal peace.

“ Pat was a wonderful neighbor and friend. When we moved into the rental house behind the Cates and Goldshine’s just a couple of days before Christmas in 1990 Pat and the twins were first to come and greet us with cookies and valuable information about the best day care centers and life in Montclair. She fought through her battle with breast cancer with grace and dignity during the couple of years we lived there as well. We loved the get together with those families for many years as all of our kids grew into wonderful adults. No doubt this wonderful Nana is now looking down from heaven on all those left behind. Lloyd and I are praying for comfort for all in this time of grief.

“ I cannot think of just one memory as so many flood in... family events, graduations, birthdays, holidays, births, visits, church... Pat always seemed so fun loving as a wife... a great mama and a super nana with so much love pouring out from her to them... a great friend and neighbor full of laughter and stories... she was always going to boy's (Abram and James) swim meets, wrestling matches and such hollering out "I love you" in the middle of encouraging shouts to root them on. She was a loving cheer leader for sure, to many, and will be so missed.

My heart is so heavy as we continue to pray for comfort and peace... sending lots of love to her family.
