

Patricia (Patti) E. Gogoll

February 20, 2023

Patricia (Patti) E. Gogoll, 37, of Baltimore, Maryland, beloved daughter, sister, aunt, niece, cousin, and friend, passed away on February 20, 2023.

Patti was born in Fairfax, Virginia in May of 1985. She went to school in Woodbridge and Chantilly, Virginia. She was proud of her many years working for and managing a large floral chain in Maryland where she could express her creative side and spread joy to others with her creations. She had recently begun a new venture in the corporate administrative side of things before her passing.

An animal lover since birth, she was frequently involved in animal causes, particularly The Baltimore Animal Rescue and Care (BARCS). She also had a giving heart and avidly supported local annual Polar Bear plunges, donated to the local Maryland woman's domestic abuse shelters Martha's Place and the House of Ruth, and participated in "Walk to End Alzheimer's" events with family members in honor of her grandmother.

Patti was preceded in death by grandparents Elizabeth "Libby" Gogoll Garland and Thornton H. Gogoll Jr., and sister Teresa L. McArdle.

Patti is survived by her sister, D'Arcey G. Johnson, parents, John T. Gogoll and Martha M. Grace (formerly Gogoll), nephew Matthew A. Johnson and brother-in-law Justin C. Johnson, plus many cousins and extended family.

A celebration of life will be held on Saturday, March 11 from 12-3 pm at Miller Funeral Home in Woodbridge, Virginia. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to BARCS or your local animal shelter.

“ We've talked a lot about life in short time we had with each other. You've seen me as 'the disciplinarian', because I said no to most things! You were always willing to take risks, and give without yield, when it came to those closest to you.

I know you loved deeply.

May you be missed.

May you be without pain.

May you be at peace.

“ How do I describe Patti? I would describe her as loving, thoughtful, and kind. I met Patti through my daughter Amanda, and they were best friends since high school. She came to our home quite frequently and we shared many moments of laughter and memories were made. She would very often arrive at our home with beautiful flowers ” just because.” She always called my husband and myself Mr. and Mrs. Taylor though we never required it.(such manners). She was a such a joy to know. Kind, caring, funny, and full of life and love. Patti you are truly loved and forever missed! God broke the mold when you were born! God bless!

“ The universe placed us in the same Art class freshman year of high school, and the rest was history. 22 years later and no matter where we were in the world, we always kept in touch and got together whenever we had the chance. My favorite memories of Patti will always be the nights we just stayed up all night talking about life, cracking jokes, and watching movies over a pint of ice cream...or the days we would take long walks everywhere as teenagers. She is the most beautiful person I've ever known, and I will love and miss her forever.

“ I remember trading New Kids on the Block swag with her because we both liked Jordan Knight. After quite a bit of negotiation she finally gave me her heart shaped Jordan pillow and quickly became my favorite little sister. I'm so sorry for your loss. She was a beacon of light and always good for a laugh, some swearing and great advice. I'll remember her, always.
