“ Patrick was a member of Old Town Community Church and the Young Professional’s Group (YPG). He was always kind and thoughtful. As the YPG leader, I spent many hours talking with Patrick prior to his marriage and becoming a dad. Patrick was a lovely person and I will always remember his kindness. Rest In Peace dear friend. “ I worked closely with Patrick at the U.S. Marshals. Patrick loved his kids more than anything else in the world. Patrick embodied a good man, good father, and a caring human. The world is not as bright without him. I am heartened he may now rest in peace. I hope and pray his family may find peace as well. Mike Prout

I barely knew Patrick, but went hiking with him once and had dinner with him once. My fondest memory is four guys hanging out next to a huge lake talking. Patrick had some great stories. And, yes, he did love his children.

Patrick was a friend and fellow traveler. We went hiking together several times over the last few years and enjoyed talking about philosophy, especially stoicism. He was there for me when I going through a hard time in my life. I appreciate his authenticity and passion for life. I miss him.

I did not know Patrick as well as I would have liked to. One thing I knew about Patrick is that he would lean into challenges and not shrink back. I sense that he always gave the best he had.

Patrick was a great guy. Some of the stories he shared with me will be with me for a long time. He inspired me at every turn. We're grateful for the time we had with him.
