

Peter Sepulveda

October 11, 1970 - February 22, 2026

Peter Sepulveda Jr., 55, of Woodbridge, VA passed peacefully in his home surrounded by his beloved family on February 22, 2026. Born on October 11, 1970 in Brooklyn, New York, Pete grew up in Long Island and later relocated to Virginia, where he joined the Metro Transit Police Department in 1993 to pursue a career in law enforcement. Throughout his career, Pete wore his uniform proudly and embodied humility. As a result of his performance, intellect and diligence, he achieved the ranks of Special Response Team member, Training/Firearms Instructor, and Captain, performing the duties of evening watch commander. In 2020, Pete retired after serving more than 27 years of dedicated service. Pete's legacy lives on as he is accredited with designing the department's current uniform. He and his wife Shannon (Somich) shared almost 27 years of marriage, two children and a love for Ocean City, MD, where they met. There was no greater role for Pete than being a proud father to Peter and Lola. Pete's passions included traveling near and far to support his children's athletics throughout high school and college, cooking for his family, listening and dancing to his old-school playlist, as well as spending time at the gym (especially on chest day), where he met many of his closest friends. Pete was predeceased by his father Pedro "Pete" Sepulveda, mother Carmen (Rios) and brother Paul Sepulveda. He is survived by his wife, Shannon, son Peter Ryan Sepulveda and wife Layla, daughter Lola Sepulveda and companion Joey Preci, brother Thomas Sepulveda and wife Denise, nephews Jordan, Noah, Paul, Luke, Thomas, Robert and many close family members and friends.
