

Remedios Soriano Sese

February 20, 2022

Remedios Soriano Sese, 87, of Jersey City, New Jersey, beloved sister, mother, aunt, and grandmother, entered eternal rest on 20 February 2022 in Arlington, Virginia.

Remedios “Remy” Soriano was born on 24 February 1934, in the Philippines, to Delfin and Rosario Soriano. She and her husband, Eugenio Sese raised five sons in Malabon Rizal, Philippines. In 1977, Remy arrived in the United States with her family, where they settled in Jersey City, New Jersey, which she called home for majority of her life. Remy was a skilled accountant by occupation, and it was her devotion to her family that kept her active. Her dedication to the Catholic faith, strong-willed outlook, and unwavering love for her husband and children is what formed the foundation of her family. Since she became a grandmother in 1984, she has visited her sons and their families who lived in New Jersey, Virginia, California, and Ohio - and affectionately doted on her twelve grandchildren.

Remy was preceded in death by her loving husband, Eugenio; daughter Eileen; father Delfin Soriano; mother, Rosario Soriano; brothers Rogelio, Reynaldo, and Rolando Soriano.

She is survived by her sons, Alvin (Rose), Manny, Robert (Geraldine), Edwin (Grace), and Eugene; siblings, Romeo (Mila), Rebecca, and Rosalie (Edgar †); sisters-in-law Violeta Soriano and Myrna Soriano; grandchildren April (Nate), Allen, Stephanie, Andrew, Edward, Richard (Nicole), Mitchell (Kailey), Marghenello, Ashley, Eric, Audrey, and Laura; as well as many cousins, nieces, and nephews.

The Sese family would especially like to thank the staff of Golden Years & More in Manassas, VA for their compassionate and loving care of our mother/grandmother.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made online to the Alzheimer's Association and National Kidney Foundation.

The Family of Remedios kindly requests that MASKS BE WORN and SOCIAL DISTANCING BE OBSERVED for all who are attending, in person.
