

Richard "Ricky" Wolfrey Jr.

June 4, 2021

Richard "Ricky" Lee Wolfrey Jr., of Woodbridge VA, passed away June 4, 2021. Ricky battled for 16 months the hardest beast to fight; Glioblastoma (GBM) is a very ugly cancer and for the most part, he held his head up high to fight it.

While fighting brain cancer, he also fought to become clean. He was so happy that he was 7 months clean. He made that decision to fight yet another battle on his own and we are all so proud. Along his journey he also helped others struggling with addiction. He touched so many hearts and made so many friends on top of the many awesome friends he already had. Ricky was a high energy guy that loved to cook, play disk golf, loved the beach, playing Zelda, watching movies, and being with family and friends.

He is survived by his mom, Carol McKnight; wife, Christine Wolfrey; Daughters, Kameron Wolfrey and Grace Jones; along with aunts, uncles and many close cousins.

Thank you for joining us today to celebrate his life and carrying on his memory today and forever. Ricky will be deeply missed and will now be our angel in heaven. His legacy will live on in the hearts and minds of everyone he interacted with.

The family will receive friends on Tuesday, June 8, 2021 from 2-3 p.m. at Miller Funeral Home and Crematory, 3200 Golansky Blvd., Woodbridge, VA 22192, where a funeral service will follow at 3:00 p.m.

“ It has taken me some time to be able to share my memory of my young brother. I will never forget those days as a toddler on my shoulders who went everywhere with. Be it the movies, arcades, or to the store to play let's go see things which the prize was getting an item we could afford for being a good kiddo ☐ As time went by we grew apart and that is a regret I have to live with everyday 😞 I still remember the graduation of my Naval boot camp and seeing him salute me in his little Navy outfit. Now brother I salute you and wish I had not grown apart so far that I can never laugh, argue, or agree to disagree. I was the elder but honestly I looked up to you as you were so loved while I was the hated. The day will come soon that I will leave this world and hope we can be together in a place where there is only love. Not goodbye this is see you soon little bro 🙏
