“ Bob, was truly Uncle Bob. Bob and my Dad would drag me along to all the rental houses.

It seemed like I was the the "hold this and don't let go til we tell you". Though it was not always work. I truly remember all the days we went target shooting. I shot one of is shotguns, that so cool. I think i was deaf for about week and my arm hurt. One day we got busted by the county cops but Uncle Bob got us out of trouble. I loved riding in the bed of the old brown Chevy. It was fun to be around Uncle Bob. I will cherish the memories but he will be missed.

“ My Mom, Jean worked with Momma Dot at the Quantico Commissary. I started bagging groceries on the weekends and became friends with Peggy, Momma Dots daughter. From there on we all became friends. They made me (us) feel like family.

“ He always wanted to give people something, food, shoes off his feet, to a person that was barefooted at the airport, on one of his trips. You never left his home without taking home leftovers from family and friends gathering. We love and will miss our dear friend.
