*I was estranged from my brother for many years. I had NO idea he was even sick, especially deathly ill. I don't know how I will cope with it all now. Brother gone, sister gone.

“ Sarge was one of the first people I remember from my start in corrections in 1989. My husband and I were blessed to reconnect with Sarge via social media last year and enjoyed friendly banter with him ever since. The greatest blessing was being able to hear his voice, pray with him, and say I love you immediately before his passing. To Danny and the rest of the family, please know prayers are going forth on your behalf. Thank you for sharing your patriarch with us. We are better for having known him.
