Such a good guy. It breaks my heart that we lost him, as he made so many of us smile.

“ Russ, Scott and I were like 3 Musketeers for years in the late 70s/early 80s spending many weekends together hanging out. We all got married and lost touch for many years. Russ and I reconnected in 2013 and picked up the friendship yet again. He was crazy and fun. I will miss him!

“ Russ Shavatt family please accept my sincere condolences. Our Norfolk Marine Barracks family is keeping your family in our thoughts and prayers. Russ & I visited on a wednesday and he was gone the following day thursday. I'm going to miss Russ.

We've been friends since we were 19 years old. Lost contact 39 years 1976-2015. We have stayed in close contact ever since. It was fun catching up, filling in the 39 year gap. We were able to meet up in Norfolk Va in 2016 for a long overdue reunion.

Russ was planning on coming out to Colorado for a Rockies baseball game with his beloved champion Washington Nationals this year. We were going to attend the Aug 19 2020 game.

It was an honor serving with this marine. He had a constant display of enthusiasm, drive and professionalism. His example reflected the high standards the Marine Corps expects of its men. He was truly a credit to our command and to the Marine Corps.

Rest in peace brother until we meet again
