

Samuel "S.A.M." Anthony Morrill

February 21, 2026

"Samuel Anthony Morrill, "S.A.M.," of Dumfries, Virginia passed away February 21, 2026. Sam's sudden passing is a devastating loss to his family and friends, and he is missed immensely.

After graduating from Gar-Field Senior High School in June 2008, Sam learned shipbuilding skills at Seaport of Alexandria. Subsequently, he worked at J.E.S. for several years becoming foreman very quickly. He worked at other construction companies. The project he enjoyed the most was working at Clark Construction on the National Museum of the U.S. Army at Ft. Belvoir. He also explored real estate investing.

In recent years, he was companion and co-caregiver for his elderly grandfather. During this time, he felt a strong calling to be an electrician and looked forward to becoming a journeyman. However, he felt conflicted between pursuing this goal and to make his grandfather and mother proud, and staying at home to help take care of his grandfather and help manage their household, a worthy role in itself. He always thought there would be time to accomplish his goals of becoming an electrician and studying engineering and economics.

Sam is survived by his mother (Chieko Homan), his father (Robert Morrill and his life partner Nancy Heck and her daughters), grandfather (Ronald Homan), aunt and uncle (Naomi and Jeff Merchant), cousins (Harrison and Hamilton Merchant)."

“ Thank you for always looking out for me when I was growing up like when you pulled up to scare a bully in the neighborhood. you really made an impression on me I always will listen to rap music and wear baggy clothes because I always loved your style. I will always remember how happy and funny you were and how you were always able to make a room light up just like this candle i lit in your memory i love you Sam thank you for being the best cousin i could have ever asked for.

My beautiful child, my beautiful son. I will meet you again when I cross over. I miss you, love you forever.

“ My beautiful son, I miss you so much. You had so much more inside you and so much more to do. I watched you mature in ways where you spoke of regrets from your youth and hoped the people back then were okay and wished you could meet them again to apologize. I have seen the shield you wore in public, but underneath laid a gentle and tender heart no one knew outside of our family and your close friends. Yet you always came to the defense of and defended the ones you loved. Always the dependable one who cheerfully helped your friends and I know many of them bruised you. This life isn't easy by any means, but how can it be that you are already gone? For years and the week before, you told me you would leave before me. How did you know? How can it be?

I am eternally grateful you came here to be with me and grandpa. The last three years have been a blessing to see you everyday. I know you struggled with wanting to accomplish your goals and being here at home whenever grandpa fell. I know you would have felt guilty if you weren't here and actually I was relieved you were here to pick him up every time. Thank you for everything you did even before you came to be with us, all the things you made and fixed. As I look around, yeah you did so many things for us and you poured light and laughter into our lives. And I am so grateful you had a strong bond with Aunt Mimi, Harrison and Hamilton.

Sam, I miss you. I miss your laughter your jokes, the way you always wanted to sit on my lap and did! I still see you walking into the kitchen every morning and the living room every night tapping grandpa to say hello. I miss your witty humor, your witty playful banter with Aunt Mimi, your sitting on her lap too, all the videos we shared about ferrets, otters and Maine Coons, all the funny short clips of Shrek, Madagascar, South Park and others, watching Impractical Jokers with you. I miss when you talked about your dreams and goals of wanting to become a journeyman, studying engineering and finance and using all that knowledge to get back into real estate investing and building a big beautiful house for us.

I will forever miss you Sam. Knowing you are in a good place and resting, no pain, no worries, no struggles.

*I love you forever, miss you forever.
Until we meet again,
Love You With All My Heart and Soul, Mama*

*Sam — there are no words for the gap you leave in your family today but I trust you're wearing Angel Wings in the heavens today and are keeping an eye on your mom, dad, auntie, cousins and your grandpa — who clearly love you in a big big way.
I am touched by all the beautiful memories posted on your wall and write this little note with tears in my eyes.
My friend, your mama, loved and loves you with every bit of her being. She adored you and there was no length she wouldn't have gone for you if it was in her power to do so. You mean so much to her and I know you Live on in her heart, mind and soul.
I trust you are Well, Sam. And that you are watching over your mama and your whole family. Bless You 🙏 Angel Sam. ☆✝️☆*

May your heart presence always bring comfort to your mama and to those who were not ready to see you go. 🙏⚡🙏
