

Sharon Morris Deppe

May 3, 2026

Sharon Morris Deppe, a dedicated educator and beloved matriarch, passed away peacefully on May 3, 2026.

Born with a lifelong passion for learning and culture, Sharon graduated from the College of William & Mary, a foundation that launched her distinguished 36-year career as a French and Spanish teacher both in the Fairfax County Public School system and Prince William County School System. Her classroom was a window to the world, fueled by her own extensive travels and her desire to inspire a global perspective in her students.

Sharon's greatest legacy, however, was her unwavering devotion to her family. She was the cherished wife of Winfield Deppe, with whom she shared 61 beautiful years of marriage. As a mother, she was the steady heart of the home for her sons, Marshall and Harrison. Her capacity for love extended through her entire family; she was a devoted sister and a selfless caregiver to her niece and nephew, always putting the needs of others before her own.

A woman of deep faith, Sharon was a vibrant member of her church community, where she found great joy in worship and fellowship. Whether she was navigating the streets of Paris or singing hymns in the sanctuary, Sharon moved through life with grace, intellect, and a nurturing spirit.

She is survived by her husband, Winfield; and her son, Marshall; her sister, Lorna; and a host of extended family, former students, and dear friends who were touched by her kindness.

Services to honor Sharon's life will be held at Our Lady of Angels on May 30th.
