“ I had the good fortune to marry Stanley's eldest son Jim nearly 35 years ago and with that I gained Stanley as a Father-in-Law. He was brilliant yet goofy, he was strong yet kind, he was warm yet reserved. He was always ready to share a good laugh or to impart wisdom. He was the type of gentle soul that you don't come across everyday. I will forever feel blessed to have had him as "The Dear Old Dad" in my life. I will miss you and your smile. Rest In Peace and give Fran a hug for me. Love you, Donna
