

Tara Lopez

May 9, 1984 - March 16, 2024

Tara Lynn Lopez, of Springfield, Virginia, born on May 9, 1984, passed away on March 16, 2024, in Woodbridge, Virginia, at the age of 39. She was a beloved daughter, sister, step-sister, granddaughter, niece, and friend.

Tara dedicated 20 years of her life to her career as a seasoned Dental Assistant, known for her huge smile and dedication and care towards her patients. Her commitment to oral health was evident in her everyday life, as she always carried a toothbrush in her purse.

Outside of work, Tara found joy in spending time with her family and friends, especially children. She cherished moments surrounded by loved ones and had a strong connection to the beach. Her love for the sun, sand, and waves of the ocean made beach vacations a special time for her.

Tara is survived by her mother, Brenda Demello, her brother Chris Lopez, step-sister Becca Meade, grandparents Delia and Ramon Lopez, aunts and uncles Eduardo Lopez, Freddy Lopez, Gabi Lopez, Mila Lopez-Elmore, John Breeden, and Carol Wood, as well as her niece Sienna Lopez. She is preceded in death by her father, Carlos Lopez, and grandparents John and Eva Breeden.

Tara will be deeply missed by all who knew her. May she rest in peace, surrounded by the memories of her kindness and love.
