

Todd Coleman Shaffer

April 6, 2020

Todd Coleman Shaffer, 55, of Woodbridge, Virginia, passed away on April 6, 2020. Born July 17, 1964 in Takoma Park, Maryland, he was the son of George Coleman Shaffer of Lakewood, New Jersey, and the late Lillian Frances Carrodus Shaffer.

Todd is survived by his children, Coleman Thomas and Alice Mae Shaffer of Leesburg, Virginia; a sister, Katie and her husband Edward Keller of Island Heights, New Jersey; niece Morgan Frances Keller and nephew, Tyler Edward Keller; former wife Barbara Shaffer of Leesburg, Virginia; companion Cathy Handford of Fredericksburg, Virginia; and his beloved greyhound, Jet. He was predeceased by his sister Anne Francis Shaffer.

Todd graduated from Sherwood High School in 1982, where he played football and baseball. He graduated from Shepherd College in 1986 with a bachelors degree in Political Science, and he earned a masters degree in Public Administration from the American University in 1991. Todd was a proud employee of the Department of Defense for 32 years.

Todd enjoyed the outdoors, military history and travel. He loved his family and friends deeply, and nothing made him happier than spending time together. Those who were lucky enough to be his friends, became his brothers.

“ Soar with the Eagles, my dear friend, Todd. You are loved and missed by so many. Looking at your photo sparks so many great memories of a lifelong friendship. I hear your voice, I see your face, and I treasure echoes of your laughter. Thank you for that Todd.

To the entire Shaffer Family - so many of us want you to know that we are hurting right along with you, and wish you strength and comfort in the days ahead. Our sympathy and condolences go out to each of you.

With much love to you all,
