“ Rest in peace, Mr. Bill. John and I loved hearing your stories of life with Dear Vivian ...but usually from her side of the story! You were both so much fun to be around, and produced such a loving, dedicated, and interesting life together with your precious family. You will both be greatly missed! Our love and condolences to your loving daughters and their families. 🙏🙏🙏❤️❤️❤️ With much love to all, John and Margaret Smith.

“ We have known Bill for a little over 10 years. Times spent with him were gifts full of his wit, wisdom and his worldliness. Gifts we will always treasure. Bill always stood steadfast in his commitment to Country, Friends and Family, especially his beloved wife Vivian. He was a true icon of a 20th Century man who set an example to all of us who had the honor and pleasure to know and enjoy him. We will miss him always, but know he's at peace now, and forever.
